FAQ

You can now order an HD MP4 video file of the class or classes that you competed in. You will download these files from a free file transfer service. My target delivery time for video files is three weeks after the show on orders that were pre ordered or were ordered on the day of the show.

Please make sure that you actually download your video files and store them on your computer or tablet, and not just view them.

If ordering your HD video file after the event, then please send me an email letting me know your division, class and competitor number. The more information you give me the quicker I can locate the video of your class and get it to you.

You will be receiving two emails. One from my email address wayne@gmv.com.au advising you that you your video file is uploading and you will be receiving it shortly. The other email will be from File Transfer telling you to access your file now.

We are not shipping DVDs of this event. Should you require a hard copy on a disc of your own class mailed to you, this may be arranged for an extra charge to cover costs.

All footage is copyright Mr. Olympia, LLC and the class file cannot be posted on-line or on social media without written permission from the promoter, Mr. Olympia, LLC. This event is sanctioned by the NPC Worldwide.
